OHIO SENATE

A RESOLUTION

BY: D. WILSON

Congratulating Coach James Berry on being selected Coach of the Year, and his Cory-Greenan Fighting Hawks high school football team, which participated in the Ohio State High School Football Association during the 1966 season.

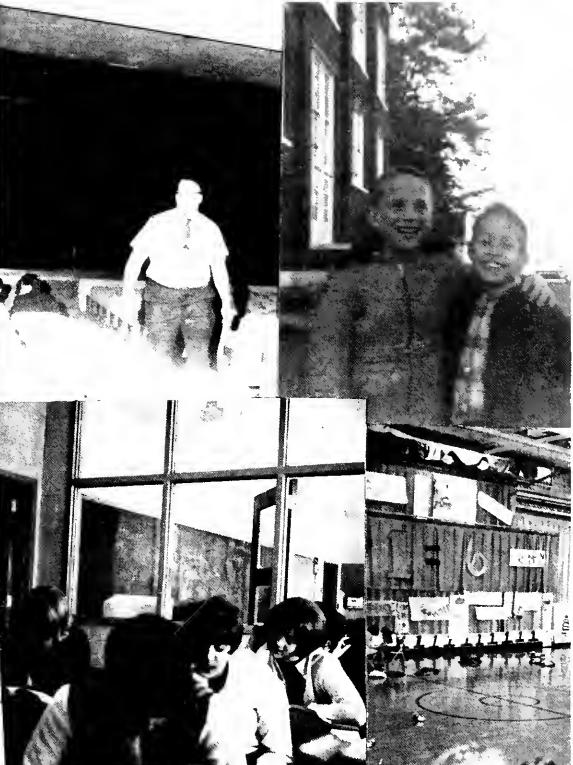

MOTION: That the members of the Senate of the 108th General Assembly of the state of Ohio do hereby extend their congratulations to the Cory-Greenan high school football team and Coach James Berry; and MOTION: With ability denied to all but true champion athletes, the "Fighting Hawks" compiled a remarkable season record of nine wins and one loss, having been beaten by the Marion High School, which had the best record in the state (fourteen yard line) and this team soared to the heights of athletic superiority by passing their first half to the spectators.

MOTION: That the members of the Senate of the 108th General Assembly of the state of Ohio do hereby extend their congratulations to Coach James Berry, and his Cory-Greenan Fighting Hawks football team, which has captured his team in its model straight education process, this year's team being presented the number one team in the state in the area of high school football, due to a lead participated to this play, honest achievement, and the development of character in our youth, the cornerstone of the American way of life.

MOTION: That the members of the Senate of the 108th General Assembly, by adoption of this resolution, offer their congratulations to Coach James Berry, the members of the Cory-Greenan football team and their assistant coaches, for an outstanding and memorable contest, and to Coach James Berry, the coach of Cory-Greenan high school, and The Republicans-Greenan, Findlay, Ohio.

Theodore B. Johnson
Theodore B. Johnson, Clerk of the Senate.

Class History

As our thoughts wander back across the past four years spent in Cory-Rawson High School, many memories, some pleasant ones and some not so pleasant, run through our minds.

We began our high school careers on September 8, 1965. After a few days of bewilderment and wandering about the halls, asking teachers where this and that room was, we settled down and became use; to the system. The able guidance of Mrs. Zimmerman, Miss Colburn, and Mr. Edie also helped us to gain in knowledge of the affairs of high school life, with its new excitement and responsibilities. To help us organize our efforts into orderly channels, we chose Larry Young as our class President, Paul Businger as Vice President, Dwayne Beach as Secretary, and Donna Thomas as Treasurer. We were sorry that Beth Buist, Norman Duffman, Dave Svoboda, and Sue Taylor were unable to continue with us as Sophomores.

Our second year as high school students was begun with a little more understanding of what was expected of us. Gone was the bewilderment of the Freshman year; in its place was the knowledge that school could be surmounted—but only by hard work. To lead our way were Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Wasbro, and Mr. Pixley, and to assist them we elected our class officers: President, Gary Fruchey; Vice President, Debbie Baier; Secretary, Jeanette Hartman; and Treasurer, Pam Marquart. One of the highlights of this eventful year was choosing our class rings. During the year we lost Helen Baker and Jeanette Hartman.

After a too-short vacation we came back to school as Juniors. The first few weeks were an unwelcome change from the fun-filled summer days, but it proved to be an important and eventful year, beginning with receiving our class rings and the Homecoming Dance, and gradually leading up to the presentation of the Junior-Senior Prom, entitled "Fairyland by Night." Early in the year we chose our class officers. The results showed: Gary Fruchey, President; Dwayne Beach, Vice President; Linda Schaller, Secretary; and Larry Bowersox, Treasurer. Working together with our sponsors, Mr. Deeds, Mr. Rossman, and Mr. Abbey, we found that school could be a great deal of fun. Linda Hoffman and Donna Montgomery entered our class during the year, but Linda, along with Terry Freed, Christine Smith, Sheila Smith, and Ricky Wilson, was not able to begin the Senior year with us.

Now at last we are Seniors. We are the ones who are looked up to by the underclassmen, who are now leading the way. We have our future lives to look forward to, but memories of these four years will stay with us. In our first class meeting we chose our officers for our final year: President, Kurt Beach; Vice President, Dwayne Beach; Secretary, Roger Scoles; and Treasurer, Roger Frommer.

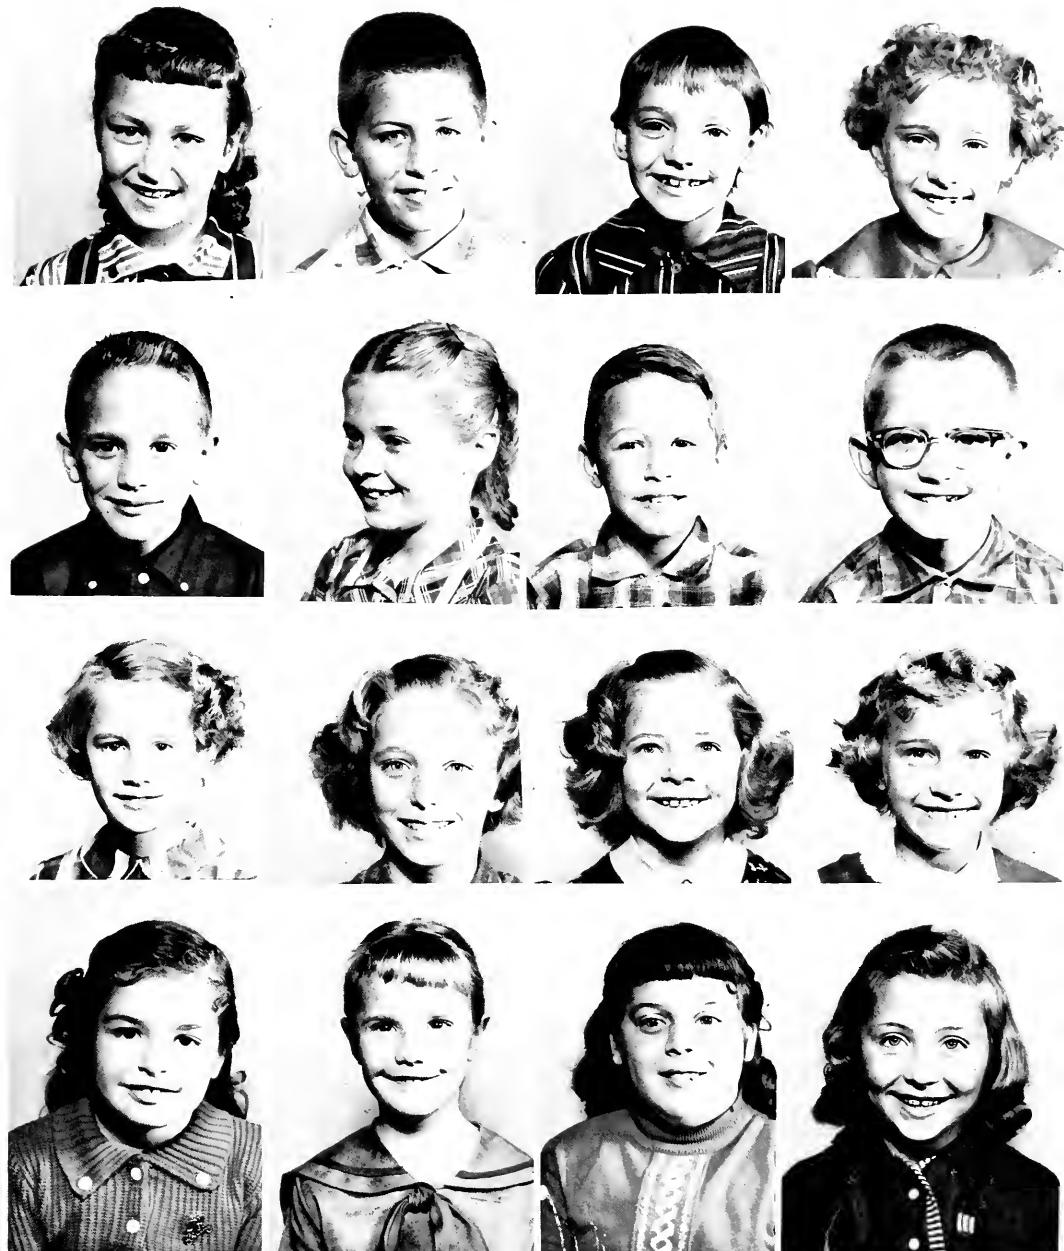

Our sponsors, Mrs. McHugh, Mr. Clevidence, and Mr. Hamman, assisted us in choosing our class motto, colors, and flower. We, along with Larry Williams, whom we gained at the beginning of the year, are looking forward to the Junior-Senior Prom and Commencement, which will climax four of the most enjoyable years of our lives.

Senior Class Prophecy

The Sixty-niners are participating in the Rose Bowl; it took us ten years but we have finally arrived. It's a bright, clear day and I (Diana Bonhard, roving reporter for the C.R. "Globe-Tribune") can see everything that's going on below from the Fruchey Blimp, designed by G.L. Fruchey, the world-renowned authority on blimps.

As I was boarding the blimp, Wayne Blackburn and Steve Armbrecht tried to pressure me into placing a bet on the game, but the odds weren't very attractive, so I declined. The blimp rose from the ground and followed the Tournament of Roses Parade which was just getting underway. At the head of the first band, Drum Major Larry Young is proudly strutting and twirling his baton to the delight of all. Following close behind are majorettes Jane Ridge, Debbie Baier, and Barb House, who are gaily twirling their fire batons. Bringing up the rear, blasting mightily away on their tubas, are Sherry Decker and Karla Sasse. Trilling away oh, so delicately on their flutes are none other than Kurt Beach and Dave Peterson. The director of this amazing band is Carol Redick. If one of the band members is out of step, Carol kicks them in the shins.

Following the band are several floats, the first of which is entitled "The Eternal Auguers." On it are Becky Stine and Darwin Rader, who are discussing whether Roger Frommer should or should not be allowed to practice witchcraft.

The next float features the Bowersox Computer Dating Company. One example of the company's perfect match-making is Pam Marquart and Paul Marquart. (Pam won't even need a legal ceremony to share Paul's name.) Keith Kline and Jean Boyd are supposedly perfect for each other because they are both fond of Siberian Cheese Hounds. Connie Leeper and Joel Harris have a mutual disgust for pointed hats, which has created a strong bond between them. Larry Bowersox, the owner of the dating company, is suing his wife, Becky Huss, for divorce on the grounds that they are incompatible and have nothing in common. It is also rumored that Larry has never gotten accustomed to Bec's rather novel—and a little disconcerting—habit of inviting Dave Harman to lunch every third Tuesday of each month.

Now isn't this a mothy-looking crew! Doug Hicks' Hippie Cult is participating in the parade. Doug is sort of maharishi-flower leader. One of his devoted followers is Lynda Gallant. The poor girl is having an experience right on Main Street of Pasadena! Raymond Frech and Steve Cantwell, two other members of the Hicks Cult, are doing a mind-expanding rendition of the fox-trot. Mike Bowyer and Janice Hauter (more of Doug's followers), are going a rather interesting pantomime of a fight between a mongoose and a cobra.

I can hardly believe my eyes, but here is Cleopatra's Royal Barge being pulled by three examples of Herculean strength, Debbie Wilson, Linda Stults, and Marlene Ruppright. Cleopatra is being fanned by Steve Diller and Sam Traucht. Cleo is none other than Barb Westall, looking very elegant in her gold-plated bell-bottom jump suit, which is a creation of the House of Pamela Baumeier Originals. Around the barge the acrobats are putting on a fine show. Mike Inniger and Randy Bunn are turning flip-flops with merry abandon.

THE PEOPLE'S BANKING COMPANY
"We try to serve all!"
McComb, Ohio

The next one is a political float featuring Steve McLaughlin for president of the National Girl-watchers' Association. Mike Daniels and Russell Withrow are passing out bumper stickers and campaign buttons which they designed themselves.

The blimp is now over the stadium. The kick-off will be in a few minutes. Our ambitions have finally materialized. The Sixty-niners have made it to the Rose Bowl!

The sportscasters for the game are Donna Montgomery and Gary Heldman. They're sure to give a very prejudiced commentary on the game. The referees will be Ronnie Kidd, Tony Miller, and Roger Scoles. Knowing them, I'm sure this game will have a good number of penalties, all against our foes.

The Sixty-niners are wearing white jerseys and white pants, a symbol of our purity and innocence. The starting line up is as follows: At end, Mike Parker and Larry Williams. (In the old high school days Mike and Larry weren't interested in football, but their more aggressive natures have prevailed) Denny Woodruff and Pete von Stein are the running backs; they've covered themselves with glory during the past few years. Manfred Humann and John Bower are taking the tackle position. Manfred always has a red rose clenched between his teeth when he comes on the field. John just murmurs a few prayers. Paul Businger, the center, never fails to give the ball a quick kiss before the snap. Steve Bormuth is the Sixty-niners fullback; his tremendous speed has won him many honors. The quarterback for this fine team is Lois Elsea. She is the first female quarterback to play in the Rose Bowl. Since Lois is the only girl on the team she has run into several understandable difficulties. Dewey Beach has been a tremendous help to her; he holds back the rest of the team so Lois can shower in safety.

Doug Bundy and Chris Robison are now singing our national anthem. Isn't that nice—a star-spangled duet!! The teams are positioning themselves for the kick-off. The referee is getting ready to blow his whistle—what's this? Two girls are scurrying across the field! It's Shelley Romick and Dianne Dukes! They discovered that they were on our opponent's side so they beat a hasty retreat.

Amid this scene of bright colors and determined faces, four figures are visible from atop the press box. Connie Badertscher and Nona Babcock are arguing with Donna Thomas and Linda Schaller on whether it is how one plays the game that counts or whether it's winning that's the important thing. Perhaps neither theory is of much importance.

What is really important is that we, the Cory-Rawson Class of 1969, reached our goal; we achieved the impossible.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1969, Cory-Rawson High School, Hancock County, Ohio, being of sound mind and body, realizing the impossibility of forever keeping these things which we hold so dear, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore by us:

ARTICLE I

To the faculty we will divers and sundry animal sounds, so that they may communicate with any student who follows in Doug Bundy's footsteps.

ARTICLE II

To our sponsors, Mrs. McHugh, Mr. Clevidence, and Mr. Hamman, we will many ice packs, so that they may cool their fevered brows.

ARTICLE III

To the Juniors, we will our ability to crowd into lunch line and not get caught.

ARTICLE IV

To the Sophomores, we will all our talents at the art of chewing gum and not getting caught.

ARTICLE V

To the Freshmen, we will the hope that they, like us, may grow up to be fine and outstanding lads and lasses.

ARTICLE VI

We, the members of the Senior Class, individually will the following:

I, Steve Armbrecht, will my ability to goof off in Shop Class to Lyn Watkins and Doug Warren,

I, Nona Babcock, will my ability to yell in pep session at the wrong time to anyone who wants to make a fool of himself.

I, Connie Badertscher, will my Macbeth notebook to any Junior brave enough to take College English.

I, Debbie Baier, will my tube of Ultra-Brite toothpaste to Mrs. McHugh for upkeep on her dazzling smile.

I, Pam Baumeier, will my ability to pack a car trunk and still get it shut to Jody Diller.

I, Dwayne Beach, will my yellow camp tent with all its accessories and all my camping abilities to Swados, Tater, and Buck.

I, Kurt Beach, will the 1968 football team's pride to next year's team, and the ability to succeed through the year.

I, Wayne Blackburn, will my sheep-herding ability to Dave Bornmuth, Dave Reichley, and Ken Young.

I, Steve Bornmuth, will my height to Neil Schaller so he won't have to use a step to get a good-night kiss.

I, Diana Bonhardt, will my quiet, mannerly, exemplary character to three kids who can really use it, Pat Rodabaugh, Alana Holdren, and Evelyn Blackburn.

I, John Bower, will my oversized handkerchief to Fred Scoles, who always has a cold.

I, Larry Bowersox, will my first place in the Shep Line to Buck.

I, Michael Lee Bowyer, will my College English book to anyone who's dumb enough to accept it.

I, Jean Boyd, will my security blanket to my sis.

I, Doug Bundy, will my nageela swim suit and all of my animal and jungle calls to Tom Meyer 'cause he likes them so much.

I, Randy Bunn, will my car to Bingo Nessler as soon as he gets the right attitude.

I, Paul Businger, will my College English book to any Macbeth scholar in the school.

I, Stephen Cantwell, will my success in finding a beautiful girl who has a weakness for me to Tom Chmitlin.

I, Mike Daniels, will my well-worn Bible to Kathy Flick.

I, Sherry Decker, will 20 pounds of my fat to Marsha Vermillion.

I, Steven Diller, will my ability to turn in Vo-Ag books late to Tom Deeds.

I, Dianne Dukes, will my green and gold water-wings to Mr. Hamman, in case the water pipes under his desk ever blow up.

I, Lois Elsea, will all my stink bombs to Deb Walters and Sue Crawford in case of attack.

I, Raymond Frech, will my ability to be the only boy in bookkeeping and typing class to any unlucky guy who wants it.

- I, Ronnie Kidd, will my ability to fix fences to anybody who has a broken fence.
- I, Keith Kline, will my study halls to anyone who needs some extra sleep.
- I, Connie Leeper, will my unforgivable height to Donn Dukes so that he may be the father instead of the child in his Senior Class play.
- I, Steve McLaughlin, will my manly physique to Donn Dukes and Harvey Anderson.
- I, Pamela Marquart, will my muscular legs to any girl who wants to look like a football player.
- I, Paul Marquart, will my ambition to work in shop to Tom Ream.
- I, Tony Miller, will my boots to Nancy Sinatra.
- I, Donna Montgomery, will my long, thick, black hair to my favorite home room teacher, Mr. Clevidence.
- I, Mike Parker, will my cat to Teddy Bear.
- I, David Peterson, will all my girlfriends to Darrell Howell.
- I, Darwin Rader, will my ability to sing in the halls to Gary Bosse. With his mouth, he'll succeed.
- I, Carol Redick, will my drum sticks to Brian Laude. See if you can break more than I did.
- I, Jane Ridge, will my height to the C-R basketball team; surely someone can use it.
- I, Christine Robison, will my long eyelashes to Patty Rodabaugh so she can bat them at a certain guy.
- I, Shelley Romick, will my ability to get myself into embarrassing situations to anyone who likes red faces.
- I, Marlene Ruppright, will my skinniness to anyone who needs it.
- I, Karla Sasse, will my bulletin board in study hall to Darrell Howell because he's tall enough to reach it.
- I, Linda Schaller, will my ability to run over skunks to anyone who wants the entire parking lot to himself.
- I, Roger Scopes, will George, my ram, to Ted Boehm.
- I, Pete von Stein, will my old gray wig to my two sons, "Buck" and "Swad."
- I, Becky Stine, will my ability to get into trouble in band to Linda Opitz and George to June Bibler.
- I, Linda Louise Stults, will my ability to write poetry to Mr. Hamman.
- I, Donna Thomas, will my ability to type to Mrs. C. (so next year she can type her homework.)
- I, Samuel Traucht, will my writing neatness to David Bormuth.
- I, Barb Westall, will my mistaken height to Donn Dukes, in hopes that he may use it better than I.
- I, Debbie Wilson, will my job in the office 2nd noon to anyone who wants to eat with the punky sophomores and frosh.
- I, Russell Withrow, will my ability to argue with Coach Hamman and still come up the loser to Sid Romick.
- I, Denny Woodruff, will my holey football socks to Darrell Howell, to wear next year.
- I, Larry Young, will my ability to raise a family and still play football to Neil Schaller.

UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF

Representative Robert D. Schuck
House District #5 - Hancock - Hardin - Putnam Counties

On behalf of the members of the House of Representatives of the 108th General Assembly of Ohio, may we extend our heartiest congratulations to the

"FIGHTING HORNETS" OF CORY-RAWSON HIGH SCHOOL and their

on your selection as the 1968 Ohio Class "A" Football Champions in the United Press International Poll.

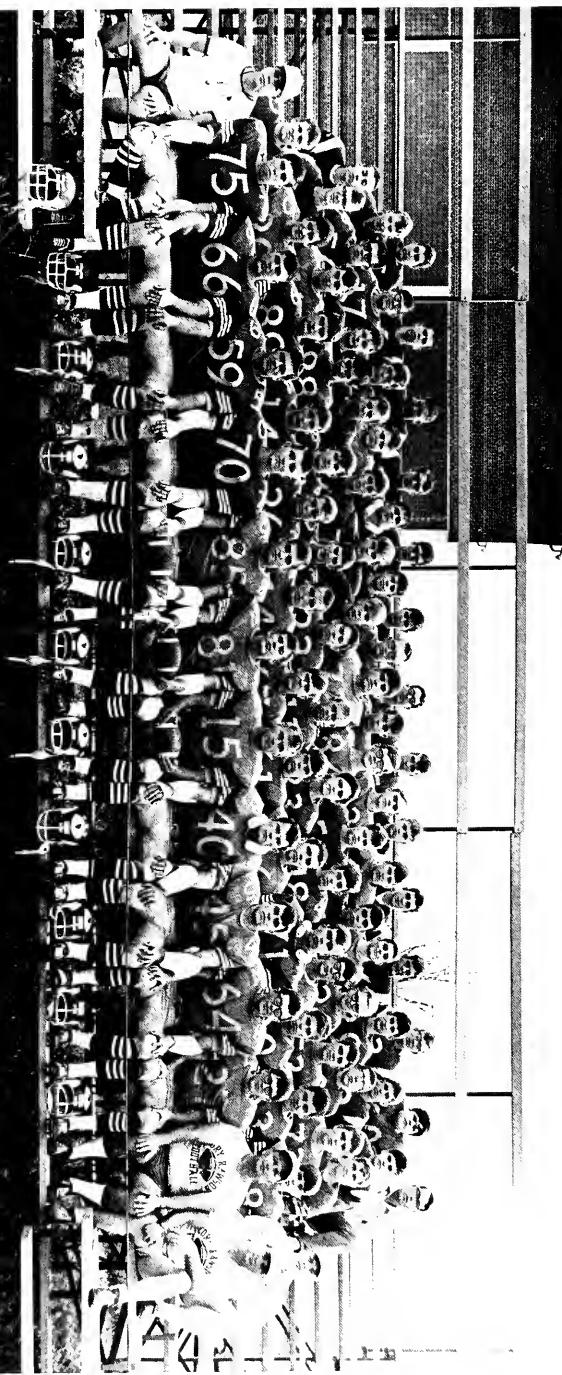

The incredible record compiled by these young men, "unbeaten, untied, and unscored upon", is a tribute to their exemplary sportsmanship, dedication, skill, and courage. The members of the administrative staff, faculty, student body, and parents have every right to take pride and be justly proud of each member of the team, their able coach, Jim Berry, and his capable assistants as they share in the pleasure of this welcome and truly deserving honor.

Your superlative performance merits commendation.

Football Highlights

VAN BUREN

The 1968 Fighting Hornets started the year out in style with a 32-0 pounding of the Black Knights. The passing combination of Mike Inniger to Larry Young produced three touchdowns of 15, 15, and 10 yards. Inniger passed to Kurt Beach for another 20 yard TD. Neil Schaller scored on a 4 yard smash, and Jon Cantwell added 2 extra points. The Hornet defense, intercepting four times, limited the Black Knights to two first downs. Young and Beach collected 12 and 11 tackles respectively. Larry Young was Player of the Week.

PANDORA—GILBOA

Pandora—Gilboa proved rough opposition for the Hornets' home opener, but Mike Inniger's 60 yard interception return started CR's momentum. Neil Schaller carried the ball the remaining 8 yards for the TD. Schaller scored from the two again in the third quarter, followed by Steve McLaughlin from the five and Inniger from the two. Inniger passed six times for 129 yards. Five passes for 105 yards and two points after TD were to end, Kurt Beach. Neil Schaller carried 23 times for 117 yards. Denny Woodruff was outstanding on defense collecting 17 tackles. Mike Inniger and Woodruff were Players of the Week.

VANLUE

The Hornets traveled to Vanlue and trampled the Wildcats 32-0. Dewey Beach scored on a 30 yard pass from Mike Inniger followed by a pass to Larry Young with a 72 yard sprint. Randy Bunn ran the conversion. Darrell Howell, playing in his first start, tackled the Wildcat punter in the end zone for a safety. Neil Schaller scored on a four yard blast with Inniger to Young for the two points. Dewey Beach sprinted four yards for the final TD. Schaller ran for the extra points. Inniger passed for 143 yards of which 120 yards were to Larry Young. Dewey Beach intercepted a pass and earned Player of the Week honors.

ARCADIA

The Fighting Hornets took undisputed first place in the B.V.C. with a 16-0 defeat of Arcadia. Dewey Beach scored on runs of 72 and 22 yards. PAT's were provided by Randy Bunn and a Mike Inniger to Larry Young pass play. An outstanding defense was led by Denny Woodruff, Steve McLaughlin, Dan Romick, Mike Inniger, Kurt Beach, and Larry Young with 15, 13, 13, 12, and 12 tackles respectively. Dewey Beach gained 182 yards on the ground. Randy Bunn was Player of the Week.

LIBERTY—BENTON

The Hornet offense exploded for their biggest output of the year in a 67-0 romp over the Eagles. Dewey Beach started the scoring with a 1 yard run. Paul Businger kicked the extra point. Mike Inniger then hit ends Larry Young and Kurt Beach with TD tosses of 32 and 15 yards. Randy Bunn scampered 52 yards in the second quarter with Neil Schaller adding the extra points. The Inniger to Young combination clicked again for a 41 yard strike and Tom Meyer ran for the points. Neil Schaller ran 4 yards and Meyer 22 for TD's, and Duke Opp converted the PAT's. Meyer tallied again on a 6 yard plunge followed by Bunn with a 37 yard TD pass interception. Jon Cantwell closed the scoring on an 18 yard run. Tom Meyer rushed for 102 yards in 6 carries. Young led the defense with 14 tackles. Tom Meyer was Player of the Week.

HARDIN—NORTHERN

The Hardin—Northern Polar Bears provided rugged opposition, but the Fighting Hornets registered a 12-0 victory. Randy Bunn scored first on a 7 yard scoop around right end. Later in the second quarter a bad snap from center gave the ball to CR on HN's ten. Neil Schaller scored this time from the one. Passes for extra points failed. The Hornet defense was led by Larry Young with 14 tackles and 2 interceptions, Kurt Beach with 14 tackles, Dan Romick with 12 tackles and a recovered fumble, and Tim Boutwell with an interception. Neil Schaller grounded out 105 yards in 23 carries in a fine effort. Larry Young and Kurt Beach were Players of the Week.

LEIPSIC

The Fighting Hornets battered the Leipsic Vikings 62-0 after leading 50-0 at half-time. Randy Bunn opened the scoring with a run of 46 yards and later scored from the 25 on a pass interception. Neil Schaller ground out TD's from the 9 and 5 followed by Mike Inniger and Duke Opp on runs of 20 and 28 yards closing out the ground action. Inniger passed for three touchdowns, two to Larry Young of 11 and 5 yards, and 1 to Dewey Beach of 17 yards. Extra points were provided by two Paul Businger Kicks, a run by Bunn, and pass completions from Inniger to Young and Schaller. Defensive standouts were Dan Romick with 20 tackles, Schaller with 16 tackles, Steve McLaughlin with 15 tackles and a recovered fumble, Young with 13 tackles, and Woodruff with 12 tackles. Inniger intercepted a pass and completed 10 passes for 134 yards of which Young collected 7 for 101 yards. Mike Inniger was Player of the Week.

ARLINGTON

Spirited line play and passing from Mike Inniger to Larry Young led the Hornets to a 41-0 romp over Arlington. Tom Meyer scored first from the 5 yard line and Young kicked the PAT. Neil Schaller scored next from the 1 followed by Young on a pass from Inniger. Randy Bunn added the conversion. In the second half Denny Woodruff gathered in a blocked pass and ran 62 yards for the score. Inniger passed to Kurt Beach for the extra points. Young and Inniger teamed for another TD, and Schaller closed the scoring with a 3 yard dive. Inniger passed 22 times for 174 yards of which Young caught 9 for 135 yards. Tim Boutwell was outstanding on punt returns. The Hornets rushed for 229 yards and held Arlington to 26. Defensive standouts were Woodruff with a recovered fumble and pass interception, McLaughlin with 12 tackles, Young with 13 tackles and a fumble, and Steve Bornuth with a pass interception. Larry Young was Player of the Week.

MCOMB

The revenge-gaining Fighting Hornets smothered the Panthers 50-0 for a perfect 9-0, unscorched upon season. The scoring started as a Mike Inniger to Kurt Beach pass covering 53 yards and a good trap play with Neil Schaller carrying for 45 yards. Larry Young kicked the first PAT and then Inniger passed to Beach for a two point conversion. Next Inniger passed to Young for a TD and Young again kicked the extra point. Dewey Beach set up the preceding touchdown and Inniger set up the next with a blasting run. He passed again to Young for the TD followed by Schaller. Tom Meyer added two points conversion. Touchdowns by Duke Opp and a pass from Dan Shafer to Gary Bosse closed the scoring. The Hornets collected 216 yards rushing and 146 yards passing. Neil Schaller led all rushers with 134 yards in 12 carries. Young, Dan Romick, and Darrell Howell all recovered fumbles for the Hornet defense. McLaughlin collected 15 tackles, Young 14, and Kurt Beach 13. Kurt Beach was the Player of the Week.
